

Oregon Bred Paint Horse Registry

The Oregon Bred Paint Horse Registry was established with the approval of the American Paint Horse Association in 1975.

“Oregon Bred” shall be deemed to be a foal dropped by a mare in Oregon.

Rules for Registration

1. All Paint Horses born in Oregon including Regular Registry & Solid Bred / Breeding Stock must be registered with the Oregon Bred Paint Horse Registry before they will be allowed to start in any Oregon Bred Performance class, Halter class or futurity.
2. Any person owning a Paint Horse born in Oregon may submit a copy of the APHA papers, completed application and the proper fee to the Oregon Bred Secretary for processing.
3. As of 2001 a certificate embossed with a notaries seal and a number will be issued.
4. Weanling Futurity entrants may be shown without APHA papers if the application and fees are paid.
5. Show Secretaries will check all entrants papers or certificates for Oregon Bred Registry Number.

Class Rules

1. A list of Oregon Bred classes to be held by the Oregon Clubs will be submitted before the first show of the year for advertising purposes. The classes will be selected from the following list:
Halter-3; Hunter Hack; Hunter Under Saddle; Western Pleasure; Western Riding; Reining; Barrels; Poles; Stake Race; Trail; Yearling In Hand Trail; Yearling Lunge Line.
2. Each sponsoring show shall set class fees at $7.50 per entry/judge but $5.00 will be paid to Oregon Bred. This money will be used for awards (class and year end).
3. The committee will provide Oregon Bred class entries forms and instructions. Show management will handle class entries. An Oregon Bred representative will be at each show to take Oregon Bred registrations.
4. Oregon Bred Registered horses will be the only entries in these classes. This includes Regular Registry & Solid Paint Bred / Breeding Stock.
5. Failure to abide by Oregon Bred rules may result in loss of Oregon Bred Points, class or year end awards, and forfeiture of entry fees.
6. High Point and Reserve Oregon Bred Horses at each show will receive awards. (To be determined by number of entries in Oregon Bred Classes) **You must enter in at least 3 Oregon Bred classes to qualify for an award.
Halter will count.
